

Mexican alvaradoa

Alvaradoa amorphoides

Type: Large shrub or small tree with open, spreading crown

Light: Full sun to light shade

Drought tolerance: High

Soil: Well-drained, limestone soils

Dimensions: 10 - 20ft H, usually taller than broad

Growth rate: Moderate

Flower: Semi-showy in long hanging spikes, 3-4 in long, green to yellowish-white, fall- spring

Fruit: Hairy winged fruit, light tan tinged with red (only on female plants)

Wildlife: Larval host plant for dina yellow uniprot.org