Abby Gendell

I am from Annapolis Maryland. In high school, I was the president of our environmental studies program. It was kind of like picking a major in high school- I took classes to graduate with a certificate in the program. I put together a project to install rain gardens in the parking lot, led fundraisers, did field work at a environmental retreat for a week and volunteered at an organic farm for 2 summers.

I am a sophomore here at UM, an advertising major with minors in public relations and in marketing. I am also on the club lacrosse team. I am so excited to get started:)

Sarah Murphy: Hi! My name Sarah Murphy. I am a sophomore here at UM with a major in Neuroscience and a minor in Mechanical Engineering. I grew up loving the environment and taking care of animals, so finding ECO Agency and the ECO Rep position really allows me to spread my love for the environment and protect it.

Gabby Tuchman: Hi, my name is Gabby Tuchman and I am currently a sophomore majoring in nursing. Some of my hobbies include reading, painting, cooking, practicing yoga, playing tennis, and spending time with my family and friends! Besides being an Eco-Rep I am also co-facilitating the First Year Leadership Council for Hillel and actively participate in Udems, Uthrift, Miami Mindfulness, and Project Sunshine. A few things I have incorporated into my daily life to become more environmentally friendly are solely eating a plant-based diet, purchasing second-hand clothes, and being aware of where the things I am purchasing come from and the carbon footprint they leave. I am so excited to be an Eco-Rep this year and actively ensure our beautiful campus is as green as possible!

Manuela Hissenhaur: My name is Manuela Hissenhaur and I'm a sophomore from Brazil. My major is Ecosystem Science and Policy. Along with being an Eco Rep, I am also a member of the Marine Mammal Rescue Team, the Surfrider Club, and BRASA. I'm excited to work as an Eco Rep this year and improve the sustainability of our dorms!

University Village

Hi! I'm Annie Goulart and I am currently a junior from Los Altos, California. I am majoring in Marine Science and Biology on the Pre-Vet Track, so nature and the animals that live in it have always been one of my top priorities. My goal as an Eco-Rep is to help make the campus more sustainable and encourage all students to make these small, but important changes.

Eaton

Gabrielle Mraz: Bio: Hi, I'm Gabrielle Mraz and I'm a Computer Science major minoring in Classics from Illinois. Living sustainably is a HUGE deal for the planet and I'm always looking for new ways to educate myself and others on eco friendly practices, purchases, and policies. I'm one of the Eco Reps for Eaton and my email is mgm210@miami.edu if you have any questions at all about sustainable living in the dorms.

Pearson

Tonya: Hi I'm Tonya, I'm a Freshman living in Pearson. I'm majoring in Global Health Studies on the pre-med track. I'm from a small town called Lewisburg in central Pennsylvania. A fun fact about me is that I miss my 3 puppies at home :(<3

Hecht

Trevor Arms: My name is Trevor Arms, and I am from Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. I am currently majoring in biomedical engineering with an interest in pursuing either a master's in engineering or going on to medical school after graduation. I am so excited to be 'Cane and be an ECO REP for Hecht. The environment is something I am extremely passionate about, and I hope to share my passion with others hoping to also make a similar positive impact.

Mahoney

Sarah Holtam: I am Sara Holtam, a first-year at the University of Miami and I am from Davenport, Iowa. I am double majoring in International Business and Organizational Leadership, with a minor in Sustainable Business. A few of my hobbies include spending time with friends, photography, writing, and relaxing. I am very excited to be a part of EcoReps and I can't wait to see what changes we can make as a group to better the community at UM.

Bianca Swanson: Hi, my name is Bianca Swanson and I'm a freshman from Houston. My major is Ecosystem Science and Policy with a minor in Marine Affairs. I like to go to the gym, run and read.

Alexis Martin: Hi! My name is Alexis Martin, and I am from Reading, Pennsylvania (about an hour and a half outside of Philly). I am a freshman majoring in Political Science and International Relations on the Pre-Law track. Additionally, I am minoring in Gender & Sexuality Studies and Mandarin. I'm super excited to be a part of an organization that focuses on sustainability and building a better Earth!

Hello my name is Brandon Nalaboff. I am a freshman from Illinois and I live in Mahoney. I am excited to be an Eco-Rep and I am also excited to experience the student life here at Miami!

Allison Blatter: My name is Allison Blatter and I am currently a freshman from St. Paul, Minnesota. I am majoring in Marine Biology and Ecology and love spending time in nature. In the past I have done public outreach as a volunteer at the Minnesota Zoo and have hosted many waterway clean ups. I look forward to promoting sustainable practices in the dorms as an eco rep this year.

Stanford

Kacey McPherson: Hi! My name is Kacey McPherson and I am from Plymouth, Massachusetts. I love painting, trying out new vegan foods, and my dog Snugglebear. I am so excited to apply my passion for the environment to Eco Reps this year!

Sarah Valcq: Hi, I'm Sarah Valcq. I am from Grand Rapids, Michigan, and I am studying finance and business sustainability. I love hanging out with my friends, traveling, shopping, and cooking. I am excited to be an Eco Rep this year and make sustainability more accessible and fun to students on campus!

Griffin Mason: Hi, I'm Griffin! I am so excited to be an EcoRep this year. In high school, I founded and was president of an environmental club, and I can't wait to continue advocating for the environment here at UM.
